new.lds.org

This is where you can find the new tools the church is building.

- User name is the same as
  - new.familysearch.org
  - ward website
  - most other church websites
- Directory
  - This shows all the ward/stake members and callings.
  - You can update your household & individual phone numbers and email addresses
  - You can upload family and individual pictures
- Calendar
  - a local group of calendars for the ward/organization level
  - We are asking the organizations to start using this calendar
  - You can choose which calendars you are interested in and you will see the events on your calendar for just those.
- Maps
  - Ward boundary maps
  - Search for other wards by address
- Study notebook
  - Annotate and highlight conference addresses, manuals, and scriptures. Save notes and organize them into folders.
- Request a copy of your patriarchal blessing
- Track personal progress goals/results online

Mobile tools

See https://new.lds.org/pages/mobile-apps for updates an platform availability

- Gospel Library
  - Download and study the scriptures, general conference addresses, Sunday manuals, and other Church content. Gospel Library allows you to search, bookmark, annotate, link, and highlight content.
- Mormon Channel
  - Listen to Mormon Channel, the Church's 24-hour-a-day audio station featuring gospel-oriented programs, music, and interviews, as well as scriptures, general conference, and Church magazines.
- LDS Tools (currently only on Apple – but more are coming)
  - Download ward and stake directory information to your phone, as well as scheduled ward events from the Church's new calendaring system.